

PRODUCTION MANAGER

Doha, Qatar

Attractive tax free income + benefits. Sunny all year round.

As the Production Manager you will be working on each project from concept stage, checking print and production feasibility of the design concept, finding the most cost effective way of producing designs and ensuring all necessary information is supplied to enable accurate development of the project.

You will manage and develop all supplier relationships, schedules, budgets, test artwork, liaising with clients and relevant parties at all stages of the project when appropriate.

The right candidate will need to be someone who has dealt with detailed print production before and has ideally managed production and print for an agency or printer.

You will need to understand the full production process from design through to full implementation. The role will involve liaising directly with clients, working with suppliers for mock ups, signing off proofs and understanding complex, detailed artworks.

The candidate:

The company is looking for a project manager with a good understanding of the production and print management business. Specifically, the ideal project manager will have the following skills set/characteristics:

- Excellent technical skills
- Exceptional communication skills
- Great attention to detail
- Enjoys working within a team
- Decision maker

If you are a production manager with relevant experience who thrives on working in a challenging, innovative environment we would love to hear from you.
